TEACHER: Good evening and welcome. Do you have a reservation with us tonight?

STUDENT: No, I don't have a reservation. Can I have a table for five, please.

TEACHER: Of course, of course. Would you like to sit outside or inside the restaurant?

STUDENT: I prefer outside the restaurant.

TEACHER: Okay, so follow me, please. Okay, here is your table. You can have a seat. Would you like something to drink?

STUDENT: Yes, I'd like just a still water.

TEACHER: Okay. Cold or room temperature?

STUDENT: I prefer room temperature.

TEACHER: Okay, very good. And... okay.

STUDENT: Could I have a menu, please?

TEACHER: Yes, of course. Here is your menu.

STUDENT: Do you have a dish of the day?

TEACHER: Oh yes, we do. Today we have two lasagnas. The first one is lasagna with Bolognese sauce, and it comes with mozzarella cheese. While the second is a vegetarian lasagna. It's with zucchini and provola cheese. Would you like any starters before that?

STUDENT: Yes, I'd like a mozzarella stick. And... I'd like a lasagna.

TEACHER: Cool. Do you prefer the vegetarian lasagna or the normal lasagna?

STUDENT: The normal lasagna.

TEACHER: Ok, very good. Anything else?

STUDENT: I don't like very much the vegetables. Do you recommended me... anything?

TEACHER: Sorry, what you don't like?

STUDENT: Vegetables.

TEACHER: Oh, you don't like vegetables. Okay. Yes, if you want, you can choose among all our courses, meat and fish, and we can remove all vegetables and veggies, if you want.

STUDENT: Okay, I would like a grilled stick.

TEACHER: Okay.

STUDENT: And would it be possible to, without potato. and pepper corn sauce?

TEACHER: Sure. So, grilled steak without mashed potatoes and without pepper corn sauce. Very good.

Yes, of course. And would you like your steak rare, medium rare or well done?

STUDENT: Medium rare.

TEACHER: Very good. Would you like anything else to drink?

STUDENT: The wine.

TEACHER: Wine. Okay.

STUDENT: Could I have the menu of wine?

Yes, of course. Here is the menu of the wine. Actually, we only have two white wines and two red wines. Which one would you prefer, white or red?

STUDENT: I prefer a white.

TEACHER: Okay. If you want, we have a very good sauvignon Blanc. Would you like it?

STUDENT: Yes.

TEACHER: Would you like to have a bottle or a glass?

STUDENT: A bottle.

TEACHER: Very good. Okay. Here is a bottle of wine and your mozzarella sticks and the still water.

okay you can, you can start with that, and when you're ready I will come with your lasagna.

STUDENT: excuse me?

TEACHER: yes, oh have you finished?

STUDENT: yes

TEACHER: oh, thank you very much how was the mozzarella stick?

STUDENT: Is good

TEACHER: here is your lasagna enjoy it.

STUDENT: thank you

TEACHER: are you okay with water and wine?

STUDENT: yes

TEACHER: Okay, have you finished with your lasagna?

TEACHER: yes, okay very good so here is your medium-rare grilled steak.

STUDENT: thank you very much.

TEACHER: Without vegetables of course. Enjoy it.

STUDENT: Thank you.

TEACHER: Okay. Is everything okay with your steak.

STUDENT: Yes.

TEACHER: Would you like a dessert?

STUDENT: Yes. Do you have a menu or a dish for the dessert?

TEACHER: Yes. We don't have the dish of the day for dessert, but we have a chocolate brownie, an apple pie, a cheesecake and an ice cream sundae. Which one would you prefer?

STUDENT: I prefer a cheesecake.

TEACHER: Very good. So, creamy cheesecake with biscuit base. Would you like any topping like red fruits, caramel or chocolate?

STUDENT: Yes, I'd like a red fruits.

TEACHER: Very good. I'll be right back. Here's your cheesecake. with red fruits on top. Enjoy it!

STUDENT: Thank you.

TEACHER: Would you like a coffee?

STUDENT: No, I don't. I don't like it.

TEACHER: Very good.

STUDENT: May I have a bill, please?

TEACHER: Of course, you can have your bill if you give me a second. It's about... Okay, it's 23 pounds, please. Would you like to pay in cash or by card?

STUDENT: By card.

TEACHER: Okay. Here's the machine. You can pay. You can tap the card. Thank you very much.

TEACHER: Okay, so I hope you enjoyed your meal and everything was perfect. I hope you had fun.

STUDENT: Yes.

TEACHER: Did you like your meal?

STUDENT: Yes, I like it, thank you.

TEACHER: Thank you very much. So, see you next time.

STUDENT: Yes, bye.

TEACHER: Bye.
