TEACHER: hello

STUDENT: hello good morning

TEACHER: welcome, can I help you?

STUDENT: yes, can I have a table please.

TEACHER: of course.

STUDENT: I, I am alone

TEACHER: ah so just for one person yes, yes do you prefer your table. uh by the window? or it's okay also in the room?

STUDENT: if possible, yes by the window

TEACHER: yes, follow me please okay,

STUDENT: okay I see, could I see the menu?

TEACHER: of course, here's the menu uh would you like something to drink before you decide?

STUDENT: um sparkling water

TEACHER: okay a bottle of sparkling water right away is coming, so yes, I'll be back and then you can tell me what you would like to eat

STUDENT: yeah, may, maybe, May I... I know the fish or the dish of the day?

TEACHER: Yes, the dish of the day is. is a lasagna with, With spinach and mozzarella cheese.

STUDENT: Okay

TEACHER: it's vegetarian.

STUDENT: It's good. Okay.

TEACHER: Is that okay?

STUDENT: Yes, Okay, one lasagna for me.

TEACHER: Okay before we start would you like any starters?

STUDENT: Oh. Yeah, mozzarella sticks.

TEACHER: Okay

STUDENT: mozzarella sticks. Okay, lasagna. And....

TEACHER: Any second dish?

STUDENT: No, thanks, for dessert Ice-cream sundae.

TEACHER: Okay, so we will start with mozzarella sticks a dish of lasagna. And then as a dessert you said?

STUDENT: Ice-cream sundae

TEACHER: Ok, Ice-cream sundae as a dessert.

STUDENT: Yeah. Yeah.

TEACHER: Okay. I'll be right back.

STUDENT: Thanks.

I have no intolerance, no food intolerance.

TEACHER: Oh, so you have no food intolerances. No, no, yes, yes. Okay, that's great. And so here you are. These are your mozzarella sticks.

STUDENT: Thanks, yeah.

TEACHER: And here is your lasagna.

STUDENT: Thanks, thanks.

TEACHER: Let me know if everything is okay and when I can bring you the dessert.

STUDENT: Thanks, in 10 minutes.

TEACHER: Okay, thank you very much.

STUDENT: Okay, I ... but can I pay with credit card?

TEACHER: Okay, but wait a second.

STUDENT: No, for my tranquillity.

TEACHER: Of course, of course you can pay by card. Yes, we can... Yes, just tell me when you're ready and you would like the dessert.

STUDENT: Okay, for me it's okay, the dessert, ice cream.

TEACHER: Okay, so you're ready? Yes. Okay. Would you like something else to drink with your dessert, like a tea or something alcoholic.

STUDENT: No, I never drank alcohol in my life.

TEACHER: Okay, so good for you, good for you. I can't tell the same. Okay, so I'll be right back with the ice-cream sundae.

Okay. Okay, here it is. Thanks. Enjoy your dessert.

TEACHER: Okay. Tell me when you're ready.

STUDENT: Could I have the bill?

TEACHER: Of course.

Would you prefer, you said to pay by card, right?

STUDENT: Yes, yes. Okay. But first, I want to congratulate all the staff. Great chef. Very kind waiters.

TEACHER: Oh, thank you very much. That's very kind of you I will let the chef know that You, you appreciated our lunch.

STUDENT: Thank you.

TEACHER: And, yes, can I offer you anything?

STUDENT: No thanks

TEACHER: Okay, if you give me a second, I will bring the bill.

Okay, give me one second. I have to make the counting so It's 3,80 for the mozzarella sticks. Yes, plus 6 pounds for the lasagna. Yes, and the 3,50 for the ice cream sundae and water 1,50. In total is 14 pounds 80 pence.

STUDENT: Okay This is my card.

TEACHER: Yes. Okay,

STUDENT: and five pounds of the waiter

TEACHER: oh, you mean a tip!

STUDENT: a tip! yes

TEACHER: so, you would like to leave a tip?

STUDENT: Yes!

TEACHER: yeah, yes thank you very much that's very kind of you. okay so it's a total uh 19,80 pounds okay.

okay, here you are, thank you very much hope everything was good and I hope to see you again.

STUDENT: I speak only good this restaurant

TEACHER: oh, thank you very much, really appreciate it, okay thank you. Bye
